Painting of the Month

Sand Bay, Fine Day

by Mick Colgan

acrylic on board

24.5 x 39 cm

framed

£380

This small painting, by one of the West Country's most masterly painters, depicts a coastal scene close to Weston-super-Mare. Colgan is a traditionalist and in this delightful small work, painted al fresco, he demonstrates a close affinity with both the French and British Impressionists, in his rendering of soft light and the subtle colours of an early summer's day

New Artist

The Gallery is delighted to announce that West Country artist Gail Clarke has joined the fold. Three paintings from this witty eclectic technician are currently on show.

The Lighthouse, I Spy That Chip! and View from a Tin Box (ill. above, £400), are on show as part of the current Gallery Artists' Mixed Show which is open until 6 September.

NEXT EXHIBITION

In Situ "Buildings Which Inspire"

27 Sep – 25 Oct 2008

Seminal Work from The Marzipan School

Boulevard in Blue

by Jane Cartney

oil on box canvas

50 x 40 cm

£460

Likened to the work of Gaudi in Barcelona, this painting is the first in Cartney's Boulevard Series, one of the main strands of The Marzipan School, so named by the visionary poet Barrie Singleton. Inspired by Hans Price's architectural masterpiece on Weston's Boulevard, home to the town's Constitutional Club, this work is currently on show together with the most recent from the series, Boulevard Grey (£380)

Proverb for a Pier

Print, Edition of 10, by Nick Sparks, incl mount & frame, £68
Another thought-provoking image from this exciting surrealist painter- photographer who utilizes clever digital imaging to produce his popular prints. Four works in current show.
